

Oral Presentation Guideline for ICSRI 2025

The time allocated for a presentation is 15 minutes, with a further 5 minutes allowed for Q&A.

- Title slide: should include the title of the abstract, name of the presenter, authors of the paper, and affiliation. [1 slide maximum]
- Introduction and Problem Statement: provide an overview of your research topic and its significance. [1 slide maximum]
- Literature: brief overview of the relevant literature that frames your research question. Can be key theories, concepts, and previous research findings that informed your study. [1 slides maximum]
- Methodology: describe the research methodology, and methods used to conduct your study. be concise about data collection, sampling, and analysis procedures. [1 slide maximum]
- Results: present your key findings. Tie it back to your research question and literature/theoretical underpinnings. [2-3 slides maximum]
- Conclusion: summarize the main findings and contribution of your study to academic knowledge and/or practice. discuss any limitations of your study and suggest areas for future research. [1 slide maximum]
- End reference page: Include all the references you have used for this presentation. [1 slide maximum]

It is recommended to limit number of your slides to 6-8 slides; this would give you enough time to talk about each slide within 15 minutes time limit.

You are required to use the template mailed to you by ICSRI 2025

Please follow the following format to save your presentation:

[abstract no] [name] [track no.]

Example:

A001_Ibrahim Vijey_5

Presenting Author/s

- First author is considered the presenting author. If different, please clearly state who will be presenting and/or details of all authors who will be presenting.
- Conference Registration: The presenting author should register and pay to present the abstract at the Conference.